Milan | October 2012

where tip

From 8 to 13 October, the terrace of the Duomo in Milan will be invaded by 50 blue snails made of recycled plastic, created by Crackin Art Group. The initiative is the result of a partnership with Veneranda Fabbrica del Duomo, to raise funds to restore the Main Spire of the Cathedral in a bid to contribute to preserving this symbol of Milan, known throughout the world and visited, each year, by as many as 5 million visitors. Tickets to see this extraordinary installation, but also to visit the terraces and pinnacles of the Duomo, featuring a breathtaking view over the city, can be purchased from Duomo Point, via dell'Archescovado, 1.
